

SRI. Silk Road Intelligencer | Central Asia's newswire <sup>Lite</sup> part of The Conway Bulletin news service

JAN. 20 2016 (SRI-Plus) – Kazakh President Nursultan Nazarbayev signed on Wednesday a decree dissolving Parliament and setting elections for March 20, official media reported.

FOR A SNAP ANALYSIS AND TO TRAIL THE BULLETIN AND THE SRI-PLUS EMAIL: editor@theconwaybulletin.com

-- As well as our headline 12-page weekly newspaper for Central Asia and the South Caucasus we publish a weekly 2-page newsheet on Kazakhstan (£75/year) and weekly 1-page newsheets on Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, Azerbaijan, Georgia and Armenia. These are priced at £60/year each. For more information email editor@theconwaybulletin.com

--ENDS--

Copyright -- Silk Road Intelligencer (SRI) 2016

-For more details on an expanded newswire service, email newswire@silkroadintelligencer.com

-Silk Road Intelligencer (SRI) is the free newswire service of The Conway Bulletin, the leading independent weekly newspaper for Central Asia and the South Caucasus. The SRI reports on Central Asia. For more information on SRI go to www.silkroadintelligencer.com. For information on how to subscribe to The Conway Bulletin, go to www.theconwaybulletin.com